Bloomfield's Centennial

We are not going to celebrate our anniversary by way of New York and we do not like to have our notices to attend committee meetings bare the postmark "Hudson Terminal" and the stamps thereon purchased in New York city. Such a thing happened during the past week as noted when received an envelope postmarked as above stated and found in it a notice from the committee on public meet ings and historic exhibit, of which ex-President of the Board of Trade William P. Sutphen is chairman and ames E. Brock is secretary sent ou

Bloomfield has a postoffice of its own and it is but fitting and proper that all postal matter bearing on our approaching celebration should bear the stamp of our local post office.

There has been some adverse comment of lack of public interest and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sutton, who have enthusiasm in the centennial celebration. May not this indifference be traceable to secondary interest in the town on the part of those who have assumed to manage and run the celebration. I was under the impression when I joined the Board of Trade that it was an institution created for prometing the welfare of Bloomfield in every particular. The object of its promoters was to make it beneficial to all Bloomfield institutions and business men. The building up of our local postoffice business is the way to bring to us additional improvements and conveniences in our postal facilities and we want to show visitors to Miss Alice Hathaway of Watsessing our town that we have first-class postal has gone to Clinton, O., to visit her facilities.

The Men's League of the Glen Ridge Congregational Church will have a and every member of the celebration dinner in the church parlors on the committee must consider local interests evening of Lincoln's Birthday, at which time the Rev.
